Wise Chapel School Building Burned Thursday Night, Dec. 19

The people of the Wise Chapel community were caused to suffer a big shock and a great loss just before Christmas when fire destroyed their nice large school building.

The information concerning the cause of the fire in this public structure has been the general comment of the communities.

The Herald has interviewed Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Jones, whose daughter is one of the teachers and who with their daughter lived in the teacherage near the building. If we get it right, about ten o'clock Thursday night, Mr. and Mrs. Jones and Mr. Grimes, who also lived in the teacherage, went to the building to get some fruit that had been stored in a room on the second floor. When these men entered the building they heard someone running on the floors above, and they gave chase, reaching the auditorium in time to see, with a flash light, what they thought to be the ladder, leading to the attic, shaking. They called for the person or persons to come down. There was no response. They took the ladder down and decided to get an officer. Two men remained to guard the building (it was very dark) and two went to Radium to phone for the Sheriff. The Sheriff sent his Deputy, Mr. Dunwoody, accompanied by two Highway Patrolmen, who went to Funston, east of Anson, by mistake and found nothing, so they hastened back to get another start. They then got the right place in mind and soon were at Wise Chapel. They, with several others using good flashlights, searched the entire building, including attic and roof. Found where someone had raised the roof trap door and went out, but "narry a soul anywhere." However they found a stove in one of the upper rooms well heated, but not over, and this lent some clue, but no where could they find more evidence of any person.

The officers went home.

The Jones home was late awake with several persons preparing packages for the next day, and someone heard a noise and exclaimed that they thought somebody was bothering their cars. This was a late hour, by now, perhaps after two A. M. Mr. Grimes is said to have opened a door and looked out to find the big building with flames bursting out of the windows.

There was nothing that could be done to save anything. The teacherage, being so near by, was soon abandoned. Hurriedly as much as possible of the household effects were removed. The house slowly caught and the entire property was lost.

It is understood that perhaps $4,700 insurance was carried on the two buildings. At this time it has not been learned just what arrangements will be made to carry on the school. The upper grade students are already coming by bus to the Hamlin High School. Some have thought it might be practical for the entire school to be transported to Hamlin where they could find room in the Grammar school building, for the remainder of the term. Still others have thought some kind of temporary board building could be arranged, and later to be used in a new structure.

An affair of this nature, where it looks as if some one set the building on fire, is a hard blow to a community. The Wise Chapel School was one of the first in the county to "consolidate." That community is progressive and their spirit will not let a fire down them. A good people must have a good school, and they will.

QUESTIONS: How did the building get on fire? Was the person who was heard to run, there for that purpose? Did that person succeed in hiding from the searching officers or did he succeed in getting out in the meantime and later returned and completed his job? If some one deliberately set the fire then what was the motive? Officers seem positive that no matches or cigarette stubs were used in the search and there was nothing to indicate danger at the heated stove.

B. R. King and Miss Dorothy Yarbrough came Saturday night to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Yarbrough.

SUPT. C. G. GREEN ILL

IN ABILENE HOSPITAL

On Friday of last week, Supt. C. G. Green was suffering from some trouble and was advised to go to the Baptist Hospital in Abilene for examination. He was able to drive his own car but on arriving there he was urged to take his bed and be under treatment during the holidays. Last reports are that perhaps he will not be permitted to leave by the first of the year.

The Herald understands Hamlin schools will resume on Thursday, Jan. 2, and the many friends of Mr. Green hope he can be able to resume his duties at least by the following Monday. However, should he be longer forced to stay in the hospital, the faculty will go right on with all school programs.

METHODIST CHURCH PASTOR

READY FOR 1936

Now that the Christmas celebration has been checked off our list and we have all enjoyed it, I am sure. There is one more occasion that must be looked after and then another year of pleasant sailing. We have yet to decide whether we are going to be good or bad during 1936. Before you make your final decision come to church Sunday and hear a "New Year Resolution" sermon, "Meeting Emergencies, Plus," Sunday 11:00 A. M.

The evening service will be held at 7:15. The general theme being, "My Impression of Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa, one of the World's Five Outstanding Christian Characters." This will be given by those who attended the lectures at Lubbock, Texas, Dec. 23rd and 24th. He is a most unique character and certainly has a keen interest in all phases of "Humanwellbeing" the world over. One of the most brilliant minds among our todays leaders. You will be interested in these reports Sunday night.

On next Tuesday night there will be a watch service at the Church. The young people are sponsoring a social hour, general discussions, radio program, by tuning in on the Memphis Young People broadcast hour, and closing by celebrating with the world on the hour of 1936 making its debut. It will be a program of fun, helpful instruction and celebration. All adults and many young people are urged to attend and help close out the old year and welcome the new.

H. A. LONGINO, Pastor.

The Herald has a letter from S. I. Boone of Floyd, Texas, subscribing for the Herald and the Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News. Mr. Boone formerly lived just west of Hamlin. But listen, he says: "We have been bogged down in the mud all winter in this part of Texas, and I believe the mud is worse than sandstorms." Agreed we are. The Herald man had rather have ten sandstorms than one cyclone, or 30 days of mud imprisonment. Thank you, Mr. Boone.

Information comes that Rev. F. S. Gibson, the large fellow who lived in Hamlin about two months and who made several talks at the various Baptist Churches about Hamlin, died on the way to his home in Arkansas. He died on Friday, December 13.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jenkins of the Dovie community were all smiles Christmas Eve by the news that their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Lowe, at Kellerville, Texas, had received a present, in the arrival of a new daughter. December 24 is a good day for a birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McClung of Jackson, Miss., arrived Wednesday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McClung. This is the first visit to Texas for Mrs. McClung, and she says the big open spaces are charming.

Lester Bevans, of Hermleigh, came over for the Christmas visit with his brother Paul, who lives at Plasterco, and Engineer for the Shell Pipe Line just east of the General Crude Station.

OUT with the old — on with the new. 1935 is a thing of the past — 1936 is here! May it be a fine one, a very cheerful one, and an exceedingly happy one for everybody — may you have a full measure of the good things that life may have to offer during 1936. These are our friendly New Year's wishes. That our energies and efforts should be redoubled in rendering a helpful and faithful service, is our conscientious New Year's promise.

HERALD ONE DAY LATE THIS WEEK

Last week the Herald was so crowded that we did not remind our readers that THIS week we would be ONE day late. This has been our custom for 21 years, and if we live to see the next Christmas week, we will again put the Herald out ONE day late. That means we go to press Friday afternoon instead of on Thursday afternoon. That means the Rural routes out of Hamlin will get their papers on Saturday, instead of on Friday morning.

This week's Herald is also smaller than usual, because of the short time, and because merchants are busy taking invoice and do not have a special sales talk for you. And speaking of merchants — let us impress this upon our readers—It's advertising that keeps any paper going. Therefore we ask each reader to watch the Hamlin merchants' advertising, it means they want your business and are not afraid to let the world know what they wish to sell and what they want for their goods. By keeping up with the advertising in the Herald from week to week, you will save on your purchases enough to pay for the Herald subscription, ten time over within a year. We can prove it!

There are many items of news, we know, which could not be gathered this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Scruggs of Olden, are spending the week visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adkins and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson of Fort Worth, came up to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson.

Ira Fudge, of the Flat Top community, went to Ennis, Monday, to visit a sick sister, Mrs. Maddox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dillard and children of Archer City, came over for a Christmas visit with their mother, Mrs. S. K. Dillard.

Mrs. Howell R. Mayfield of Eden, Texas, came over to spend Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Dan Boone.

Lack of hope leaves one a spiritual corpse.

COTTON REPORT SHOWS JONES CO. A BIG INCREASE

The first thirteen days of December shows that Jones County has climbed high into the cotton production for 1935. It now stands at 52,655 bales. Yet there will be a large number of bales to be ginned.

In the early fall the Herald's estimate was better than 60,000 bales and it now looks as if it will go down on the records not far from that amount.

On December the 13th, 1934, Jones County had received but 19,419 bales. Then from those figures it may be clear, why it looks like the depression is over in this country. A far larger crop and a good price, both for lint and the seed, plus the government contributions all make a lot of difference.

M. E. HERRING BURIED

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 27

Just as the Herald goes to press, M. E. Herring, age 50 years is buried.

He died at 6:00 P. M. Thursday at his home on Union Avenue, very suddenly.

More about the life of the deceased will be given next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baker Jr., and baby, of Ft. Worth, came Thursday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Jarvis and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Monzingo and children of Memphis, came down Thursday to visit the I. F. Mixon, Frank Cox and Joe Dillingham families. Mr. Jarvis formerly lived near Hamlin.

The Herald regrets to learn that Miss Fay Patterson is in the Abilene Hospital very, very low. Miss Fay is a niece of A. P. Patterson, with whom she lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Nucklos and children, of Abilene, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Watson, during Christmas.

Mrs. W. J. Poe is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Thurman in Lubbock.

HAMLIN CHRISTMAS BUSINESS GOOD

From various quarters we learn that the past Christmas season was equal to any in the past and in many cases far surpassed all records.

In Hamlin, we know it was far better than it has been in many years. Perhaps not a record breaker, yet in some respects, however, it was.

Postmaster Rowland reports that last Saturday and Monday morning was the "rushingest" business he had ever experienced since starting in this office many years ago.

As is observed in other reports, in Hamlin people seemed to be buying the more substantial things.

Perhaps one of the key cities of Texas was Dallas. That city reports record-breaking business: Example — "The 1935 Christmas season outstripped anything in the history of this store. Never during any holiday shopping period have we equalled the unit or dollar volume recorded this year," quoted from Stanley Marcus, in Dallas News.

When people buy they have something to buy with. When there is no buying there is a depression. Let's hope that 1936 holds still better buying power than in many years in the past. We can't close this without saying that we believe the "Roosevelt Deal" has had a great deal to do with this past Merry Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Floyd and little daughter, of Junction, are spending the week here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McClung, and enjoying a visit with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McClung, of Jackson, Miss.

Curtis Martin was called to Houston last Sunday by the death of his uncle, W. F. Palmer, who was injured in a car wreck. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. R. A. Crockett and his grandmother, Mrs. H. E. Palmer. They returned Christmas Day.

COLLEGE FOLKS CHRISTMASSED AT HOME

If there is anything a college boy or girl likes better than coming home for their Christmas, nobody knows about it. After being in a rushing crowd of students all the fall and early winter, standing in line at more places than at the table, and following strict daily schedules, no wonder they enjoy "getting out."

Then again, most boys and girls still hang up their socks or stockings and there is no old Santa like the ones that come down the "home chimney."

So with these facts before there is no other excuse than the above for Paul White, Delma Shelburne, Warren Nobles, and Wynell Cox to come scampering in from Texas Tech to spend their Christmas in Hamlin.

Then there were Misses Doris Pope and Ethelyn Allen who came up from the Texas Womans College at Denton, to spend a few quiet days at home during the holidays.

From Baylor University came Misses Florence Boyd, Geneva Albritton and the young fellows, W. L. Boyd, Jr., J. C. Turner, Jr., Marvin York, Jr., H. O. Cassle, Jr., and Ray Willingham, Jr., all to see what Santa would do for them.

Miss Della Bryson of Mary Harden-Baylor College for Women at Belton joined her brother Edward Bryson from A. & M. College in a visit home. And there was Thad Harden another A. & M. fellow who came up to spend his holidays in Hamlin with his parents.

Robert Johnson, the Hamlin boy who is taking a rigorous course in Medicine at the Baylor Medical School in Dallas, seemed happy to be in Hamlin for his Christmas, and a quiet rest.

From Abilene came Carol Benson from Simmons University, Miss Louise Reynolds from A. C. C. and Misses Oma Lee Herd, Agatha Griffin and Lucile Owen, student nurses from the Baptist Hospital.

Miss Marjorie O'Donnell from the State University at Austin, and has enjoyed herself with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Donnell.

Perhaps there are other students who are spending their holidays at home in or near Hamlin, if so we shall be more than glad to tell of it in the next issue of the Herald.

TEACHERS RETURN HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Miss Annie Laurie Johnson, a teacher of Spanish in the Fort Stockton High School arrived home Saturday, to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Johnson.

Miss Marie Pope, who has charge of the English Department in the Pecos High School, returned home Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Pope.

Miss Nadine Morgan, a teacher in the Waco Public Schools, is spending the Christmas holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morgan.

Miss Janie Mae Johnson, returned from Sioux City, South Dakota, where she is teaching the public schools, to spend her Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Johnson.

Miss Jewel Dean, who is teaching in the Hawley school, is at home to spend her vacation.

Miss Bernice Fairley, a teacher in the Avoca school, is spending her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Fairley.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Milstead and daughters, Misses Viva and Lola, spent the week, with relatives in Meridian and Glen Rose.

D. E. Bradshaw and family, of Lubbock County, came to spend Christmas with his brother, W. D. Bradshaw and family.

Rev. H. A. Longino, wife and daughter, Miss Lenore, and Mrs. W. J. Poe and Miss Edwina Gilbert went to Lubbock Monday to hear the famous Japanese Christian lecturer, Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa. They report a lecture worth going a long way to hear.

FACTS ABOUT OLD AGE PENSIONS

AUSTIN, Dec. 16.—"Many provisions of the Texas Old Age Assistance Law were taken directly from laws previously existing in other states or from the Social Security Act, which President Roosevelt sponsored," State Auditor Orville S. Carpenter, appointed pension chief, said last week.

"Major provisions are the following:

1. A qualified applicant must be 65 years of age and a citizen of the United States.

2. He must have lived in Texas five out of the last nine years, and have lived in the State continuously for one year preceding application.

3. He must not at time of receiving aid be an inmate of a public or private institution.

4. He must not have made a voluntary transfer or assignment of property to qualify for aid.

5. He must not be a habitual criminal or habitual drunkard.

6. He or she is not eligible if he or she has a husband or wife able to furnish him or her adequate support.

"The property restriction," Mr. Carpenter continued, "as well as that of cash or security ownership, must be clearly understood."

"A qualified old-age pension applicant—

"Does not own property, real, personal, or mixed, the fair value of which taking into consideration assessed valuations for State and county tax purposes less all incumbrances and liens, exceeds, if the applicant is single, $5,000, or if married, $7,500.

"Does not have or own cash or marketable securities, the fair value of which exceeds $500 if the applicant is single, or if married, $1,000," Mr. Carpenter state.

"An important restriction concerns incomes of qualified applicants. Incomes of applicants must not exceed, from any and all sources, $360 yearly, if single; and the combined incomes of both spouses, from any and all sources, must not exceed $720 yearly, if applicant is married," Mr. Carpenter explained. "A sworn statement of all income during the preceding two years must accompany the application."

WATCH OUT FOR PNEUMONIA

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 9.—According to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, pneumonia causes over 4,700 deaths each year in Texas. It is more prevalent during the winter and spring months.

Pneumonia is usually caused by a germ called the pneumococcus, which many of us have lurking in our throats ready to start trouble when our resistance to it is lowered. We can keep up our resistance by avoiding undue fatigue and avoiding unnecessary exposure to extreme weather conditions. When we go out into the cold, additional wraps should be sufficient to protect us. Keeping the temperature of our homes as low as is consistent with comfort will greatly lessen the difficulties encountered in adjusting ourselves to

TO OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS:

Before the year of 1935 closes, the Directors, Officers and Employees wish to express our heartiest appreciation and thanks for your loyal patronage and support during this eventful year which is just about to close.

The Economist tells us that we have now passed the depression era and that we are definitely headed for better times. We trust this is true and that the New Year will lead to higher accomplishments and greater prosperity for us all.

We feel that we are in the best financial condition that we have ever been in and we look confidently to the future, with the feeling that the New Year will bring many good things which we will all earnestly strive for.

Thanking you most kindly for your patronage during 1935 and trusting the New Year may bring to you and yours prosperity unstinted,—and to us—the privilege of being of continued service to you.

the cold when we go out.

Another measure of prevention in pneumonia is not to neglect a cold, for the common cold often results in pneumonia when neglected. A person with a severe cold should stay at home and call his physician as a precautionary measure. Then he should follow his physician's advice until the cold has disappeared.

The successful treatment of a pneumonia case often depends upon beginning treatment very early. That is why a physician should be called at once in such cases. A patient may really have beginning pneumonia when he thinks it is only a cold. If the physician's advice is sought for the cold he will have an opportunity to start treatment early if pneumonia occurs in such cases.

STILL ALL RIGHT

DETROIT, Mich. — James McGuire was called on the phone early one morning and asked how he felt. When he had said, "All Right" a voice warned that he would not feel so good later. In a few minutes an explosion blew up a garage back of his residence. The phone rang, and the voice inquired again, "How are you feeling?" McGuire replied, "All right, the garage doesn't belong to me."

ALL IN ONE

He pondered over the menu a long time. At last he looked up.

"I see you have six of my favorite dishes on the menu today, waiter," he said. "Which do you specially recommend?"

The waiter, whose job in the restaurant expired at the end of the week, sniffed.

"Well, sir," he replied. "If I were you, I'd take hash and have them all."

Christmas Marriages

Christmas time is more than a season to June time for marriages. Why not?

A new year is soon to start, and did there be any better present than a good wife or a good husband there is a chance for both in every wedding. So, as the usual thing for ages past, all communities experienced many hands joined in wedding this Christmas. Probably more than usual, maybe it is a good sign that the good old days have returned let's hope so.

PRINCIPAL, GRAMMAR SCHOOL,

MARRIED IN ABILENE

Sunday and Monday announcements were going through the mails saying that Mrs. Martha Grounds announces the marriage of her daughter, Althea Lee to Mr. Merlin M. Hastings on Saturday, December twenty-first.

The announcement gave Blue Ridge, Texas, as the home address. A little inquiry and "snooping" by the Herald man, found that Mr. Hastings was to meet his best girl in Abilene at 6:20 Saturday afternoon, that the wedding was to be about 10 P. M. So WE were at the train station, also and it was a wait till 10:00 P. M. and therefore we were fortunate in meeting the immediate future, Mrs. Hastings, a very charming young woman too.

The ceremony was said at the home of the Rev. W. C. Childress, pastor of the Methodist Church in Abilene, soon after the bride-to-be arrived.

Mrs. Hastings is a teacher in or McKinney, Texas. The couple honeymooned during the holidays with relatives and friends of Roscoe in Collin County.

After the present term of school is over Mr. and Mrs. Hastings will probably be at home in Hamlin.

Mr. Hastings has been Principal of the Grammar School in Hamlin for two years and has made many friends here, who will wish him not a happy and prosperous New Year but the same on down through the years.

ANOTHER PRE-CHRISTMAS

MARRIAGE

On Saturday evening, December 14, Mr. Elmer Stoniesifer and Miss Ina Nail, of the Dovie community were united in marriage by Rev. L. K. Malone at the Malone home east of Hamlin.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Mrs. T. P. Nail of the Dovie community, a young woman of charming personality and admirable traits. They will make their home in Hamlin.

Here is another wedding learned chance:

RULE, Dec. 23.—The marriage of Miss Ruby Neal of this city and Roy Neal of Hamlin was solemnized Sunday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Neal. Rev. J. L. Willis, pastor of the Rule Methodist church read ceremony in the presence of close relatives of the families. The bride is a graduate of the 1933 class of the high school and attended Weatherford college at Weatherford one year. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Brown of Hamlin and is a graduate of the class of 1930 of the Hamlin high school. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home in Hamlin after they return from a wedding trip.

(Congratulations, Roy.)

Rev. Hugh A. Longino came into Herald office Thursday morning with two big envelopes showing that had united in marriage, two couples this Christmas.

Saturday night, Dec. 21, Mr. G. Drummon and Miss Lois Hudson were up to the pastor's home and presented papers, signed by County Clerk Harrell, for a marriage. And there is nothing that a good minister delights to do more than to unite a happy, loving couple. Thus another memorable day in the lives of these young people, both of whom grew up in the communities near Hamlin.

On Christmas Day a couple from Claremont appeared at the Methodist pastor's home for marriage. Their names were Mr. Clyde Wood and Mrs. Bettie Wright. The ceremony was soon over and another twittttt was soon over and another two hearts were made one.

Now the above few reports of marriages is certainly NOT all. But a paper must at least get a little hint of what, who and where and when. So, if there are any more such happy events that have taken place in this community (and surely there has been) please kick in with the dope an "let's tell on 'em."

WE THANK YOU

We wish to convey to our friends and neighbors our deepest thanks and gratitude for their patient kindness and sympathy shown our dear wife and mother during her illness and at the time of death.

For every token of your kindness we thank you.

W. A. DENNIS,
and Children.

MRS. CATT'S OUTSTANDING WOMEN

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, noted feminist, has made her annual selection of the ten most outstanding women in the United States for 1935. For the third time, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt heads the list. The others include Anne Lindbergh, Amelia Earhart, Ruth Bryan Owen and Frances Perkins.

The list is comparable with the ten best-dressed women or the ten best-dressed men in the country. It is all a matter of individual judgment and preference.

We are sorry Mrs. Catt made so many omissions. After all, there were only ten places on her team and she had to stop there.

If there had been room, we should like to have nominated for earnest consideration the lady who, although provoked beyond utterance, meticulously refrains from trumping her partner's ace. Also the lady who, in the face of great temptation, to frown your soul to a frizzle, accepts instead your humble apology for stepping on her feet in the aisle.

Where, we would respectfully ask Mrs. Catt, is that blessed Mother in Israel who darns your socks and sews on the missing buttons? She is the nation's No. 1 Benefactor of Mankind. And what about that paragon of womanhood, the lady who signals for a left turn and then actually makes a left turn?

And what about that perfection of feminine courtesy, the waitress who serves a soup spoon with the soup and does not have to be reminded about the butter?

Doubtless Mrs. Catt did the best she could within the narrow limits of her time and space, but she overlooked several good safe bets. We will let her off this time if, next year, she'll include one woman who has made an outstanding success in the grim art of keeping a home and raising a family on her husband's income, whatever it is.

CHRISTMAS AT PLASTERCO AROUND COMMUNITY CENTER

The people of the Plasterco community enjoyed a delightful evening in a Christmas Community Tree.

The comfortable auditorium of the Community Building was set for the old-fashioned Christmas Tree, where the smaller ones met Santa, and received their presents.

A suitable program was arranged, which included a reading by little Miss Bettie Jean Jones; a song by two young fellows; and still another song by the Bond Twins and Bettie Jean Jones; Little Miss Corene Wilcox and Master Dean Criswell gave a reading each.

Up-to-the-Moment HOLIDAY DRINKS

A very merry, dancing, drinking,
Laughing, quaffing, and unthinking time.
—Dryden

THIS is pretty much the prescription for holiday parties. And the fact that the mint juleps are sparkling with the tang of pineapple juice instead of alcohol, that the hot punch is spiced with cinnamon, cloves and allspice and that egg-nog boasts only brandy extract, does not, at all, mean that the parties will be less hilarious.

It takes only good food, good holiday drinks and a good dance orchestra to make youthful spirits effervesce, and these holiday parties for home-from-school-and-college crowds are indeed a "laughing, quaffing, and unthinking time."

Do Be Up-To-Date

Make certain, however, that your parties are the very latest thing, up-to-the-moment in every sense of the word, if you are entertaining the younger set. There is no other group more intolerant of last year's styles whether it be clothes, dance steps, food or drink. You can buy gaily decorated glasses for your holiday drinks at very little cost indeed—glasses with pictures on them so that each person can carry his pineapple julep from ping-pong table to card table and know it when he sees it, glasses conveniently numbered for that same purpose, Roman striped glasses, polka-dot glasses—all kinds. But be sure that your punch glasses are punch glasses—squatty little mugs, and that your mint julep glasses are authentic—tall as a track-star and glamorous as a Junior Prom "date."

Here are several suggestions for holiday drinks to fill the glasses—they're strictly there!

Mint Julep: Boil four tablespoons mint jelly, four cups water and four cups sugar until the jelly is all melted. Cool. Add two cups pineapple syrup and the juice of four lemons. Serve very cold with a sprig of fresh mint in each glass. Instead of ice, use ginger ale flavored with the mint syrup from green cherries and then frozen in cubes. This fills six tall glasses.

Coffee Milk Shake: Combine two cups strong clear coffee, one-half cup maple syrup, one cup evaporated milk and one-fourth cup canned chocolate syrup. Shake well in a cocktail shaker with crushed ice until cold. This fills six tall glasses.

Holiday Punch: Mash two bananas and add two cups pineapple syrup, one cup evaporated milk, two tablespoons fresh lime juice, one-half cup orange juice and one-half cup crushed pineapple. Shake well with crushed ice. This fills five tall glasses.

New Year Egg-nog: Beat four egg yolks until thick. Add one-half cup sugar and one-third cup brandy extract. Add two cups evaporated milk and two cups water combined. Then fold in four stiffly-beaten egg whites. Sprinkle nutmeg on top. Have very cold. This fills twelve small cups.

Spiced Hot Punch: Boil one quart water with the following spices: one 3-inch piece of cinnamon, one teaspoon whole cloves and one teaspoon allspice. Add two cups of syrup from canned pineapple and reheat. Beat eggs well, allowing one-half egg to each glass to be served. Divide the egg among the glasses and pour the hot punch in, stirring well. Serve at once. This makes about one and one-fourth quarts.

I have added new linens for my bed, put in a dressing table, made a hat rack, made new linens for dressing table, table and piano, made my bed properly and have rearranged the furniture in the room. HAS MORE LEGS

In case you haven't caught on yet just what the Centennial is all about, we pass on to you the explanation of the boy whose sister wanted to know what a millennium was. "Why," said the boy, "Don't you know? A millennium is the same as a centennial, only it has more legs."

MRS. W. A. DENNIS IS CALLED HOME TO REST

Mrs. W. A. Dennis was called by death Saturday afternoon at six o'clock, December 21, 1935, after several months of illness.

Mrs. Dennis' maiden name was Miss Roxie Waggoner. She was born in 1890 at Nashville, Tennessee. She moved with her parents, sisters, and brothers, to Clyde, Texas, in 1901. At the time of her death she was 45 years, 11 months and 3 days of age.

She was married to Mr. W. A. Dennis in 1907. She was the mother of eleven children, all living except one. All the surviving children were at her bedside when death came.

The family moved to Plasterco community from Moran in 1924. They have lived in various communities near Hamlin ever since.

Mrs. Dennis accepted Jesus as her Savior at the age of sixteen years. Though she left children and husband that will miss and long for the loving hands of the mother and wife, God knew her place was ready in Heaven, so He closed the book of her life and wrote, "At Peace with Jesus."

Surviving are: Her husband, six daughters, Mrs. Arza Brown, Misses Maudie, Florene, Glyne, Norma Ruth and Connie Jeanette Dennis, all of Hamlin, and Mrs. Lloyd Burnett, of Dallas; four sons, Lawrence, Melvin, Hollas, and W. A. Jr., all of Hamlin. One granddaughter, Bobby Burnett, of Dallas, and one grandson, Hoyle Brown of Hamlin; eight sisters, Mrs. Etta Waggoner and Mrs. John Christian, both of Clyde, Texas; Mrs. Maggie Turner, of Dallas; Mrs. Bob Vestal, of Littlefield; Mrs. Frank Rowland, of Hamlin; Mrs. John Christenson, and Mrs. Werner Linquist, both of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Joe Rye, of San Diego, California; seven brothers, Huston, Auther, Earl, Thomas, and Alonzo Waggoner, all of Clyde; Mr. Frank Waggoner, of Plainview, and Mr. Willie Burnett, of Dallas.

Funeral rites were held at the Clyde Christian Church, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Services were held by Rev. Holden, pastor of Hamlin Church of Christ and Rev. Slater, of Clyde.

The body, in charge of Barrow Funeral Directors of Hamlin, was laid to rest in the Clyde Cemetery.

SENIORS HAD PARTY

The Seniors were given a delightful Christmas party by Mrs. Moody and Miss Thompson last Thursday night. The basement of the High School building was decorated in the Christmas colors—red and green. In the corner a beautifully decorated tree invited inspection and under it everyone present placed a gift. Many amusing games were played and then Santa Claus John Howard gave out the presents.

Speaking of second childhoods . . . there was everything on that tree from baby rattlers to puppy dogs. We even saw one girl playing with a trained seal and a boy who had a pig that danced. When the merriment over the gifts had ceased, the party assembled in the Study hall where delicious refreshments were served to the Seniors and their guests.

The Seniors wish to thank Mrs. Moody, our room mother, and Miss Thompson, our sponsor, for such a grand party. We do appreciate it and love them for the efforts which we know they put forth in order to make the party perfect.

—Senior Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nash, of Leona, Texas, came up for their Christmas in Hamlin with Mrs. Nash's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbott. Mrs. Nash was Miss Catherine Abbott before her marriage.

Charley Bevels, of Hot Springs, New Mexico, came over to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bevels. It has been eight years since he was in Hamlin and the main expression is "Best" for his town.

Refreshing Relief

When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. . . Mr. J. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."
